Chips

Just the other day, a pledge of our fraternity was talking with us about the possibility of securing a job on The Hatchet. Eventually the conversation drifted to this column.

"Who writes Chips?" he inquired profanely.

We pleaded ignorance, whereupon he remarked, still with some heat, that the column was by far the worst written that he had ever seen. "Out of the mouths of babes, etc."

Consequently, we have drafted him into service, and he sits by our side as we pound out these few lines. If the paragraphs improve, it's all his fault. Mail all votes of thanks by this Friday, please.

Last Friday, was a banner day in many respects. To begin with, the inevitable happened in the parking situation at G. W. Shortly after nine, some desperate soul, finding no place to anchor the family Essex, drove it up on the plot of ground on which Unit Three will be erected eventually, and calmly locked the doors, and went to class. (For the more recent students, we might say that Unit Three is to be erected just north of Corcoran Hall some day.) Oh, yes, we might add that the Essex carried a 1930 Maryland tag, well up in the 234,000's, as the Police Court news reporter would say.

Another crisis occurred at noon, when all the frosh rushees were being hustled into the cars of fond papas, who would have thrown a fit had they seen how their daughters parked, double and even triple on G Street. After traffic was jammed for two blocks back, several motor-cycle cops and one on foot miraculously appeared on the scene and attempted to straighten out the mess. The women did move their cars, but not until all the dear young freshmen were safely aboard, my dear. Rushing, after all, is more important than a ticket, and besides, dad pays for both.

We've seen two tickets issued to folks who don't believe that sign just north of 21st and G Streets which says, "No Parking Here to Corner." The amusing thing is that as the officer applied one of the pink invitations to the ten o'clock sessions at Sixth and D, a student chatted with him, and learned that the policeman was extremely anxious to meet the so-and-so driver of the car. The student agreed with the cop about the stupidity of such a person, and then, when the officer had waited an hour for the owner to appear and had finally driven off in disgust, the same student glanced around, clambered in hastily, and drove away.

But to get back to Friday. Shortly before the bell rang at eleven we were rudely awakened from our nap in public speaking with the strains of "Gypsy Love Song" touchingly rendered on a mouth harp. The rendition was as much off-key as was the solo in "The Fortune Teller" at Poll's last week.

Then, to complete the cycle, we strolled down to Quikley's. We looked over toward Prexy's office, hoping to see some of those nice Pierce Arrows, Cadillacs, Lincolns, Rolls-Royces, Hispano-Suizas, and other busses that usually park double in front. Instead, we were startled to see a horse, and attached to him a hansom cab, with a driver. The horse was a beauty, and although the cab dated back to 1890, if we remember correctly, the paint job was excellent. Even the driver was excellent, appointed, with his tan jacket, and the long whip, dangling over the horse's ears.

As we marveled, a friend came by. "What do you think of the cab?" we asked.

"Ain't it handsome?" he returned. After we dropped him down the sewer, a freshman acquaintance passed. Resolved to make the same mistake but once, we remarked: "What do you think of the hansom cab?" He snickered superciliously.

"I've seen better cabs than that," he retorted. We also see by the papers that the women athletes are going to choose "the first, second, and best song" to sing about women's sports. And what does that make us?

Another headline, "Swimming Activities Have Enlarged Range." Four Delts have gone out for the team.

Still another, "University Has Regulations on Social Affairs." Well, well, well. DICK ROLLO (and partner).

LADIES' FAVORS FOR PROM TO BE OF NEW DESIGN

Wandering Greeks' Box Certain; Helen Newman Sells Tickets

AL KAMONS WILL LEAD MEYER DAVIS ORCHESTRA

Council Is Keeping Secret the Nature Of Favors To Be Given Girls

Wandering Greeks have a special box, music is to be furnished by Meyer Davis' Society Orchestra of eleven pieces led by Edith Norris. Kappa Kappa Gamma and James Fleck, chairman of the Social Committee of the Interfraternity Council, the girls' favors will be given out by Geraldine Free, Pi Beta Phi, and Harold Farmer, President of the Interfraternity Council. In fact all details of the Interfraternity Prom are known except the exact nature of the girls' favors.

The Wandering Greeks have their box arranged. Their tickets are being sold by Helen Newman, Secretary of the Law School, in the Law School office. Ladies' favors are in the possession of the Council, presumably in a safe of one of the members judging by the information this reporter has been able to acquire concerning them. However, it is known that a special seal of the Interfraternity Council has been designed and used on the favors.

Men's Favors Distributed

Men's favors have been given to those who have bought tickets. They are neat leather billfolds for the new size paper money, with the embossed "Interfraternity Prom 1930 G. W. U." It seems the girls' favors can't be known till the girls get them. Tickets are still on sale by the following Interfraternity delegates: Harold Farmer, Sigma Nu; James Fleck, Alpha; Arthur Davis, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Robert Gray, Phi Sigma Kappa; Norman Hawkins, Kappa Sigma; Floyd Pomeroy, Theta Upsilon Omega; Russell Combes, Theta Delta Chi; Scott Richy, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Charles Cox, Delta Tau Delta; Jasper Highsmith, Kappa Alpha; and William Snow, Sigma Chi. The following representatives of fraternities not on the Council are also selling tickets: Ralph Morgali, Sigma Mu Sigma; Robert Boswell, Phi Chi; and Kenneth Yarns, Sigma Theta Delta.

MARINE RESERVES TO FORM COMPANY AT G. W.

Summer Training at Quantico Prepares Men For Future Commission in Marine Corps

A company of Marine Reserves is being formed at George Washington University by Thomas P. Littlepage under the supervision of Lieutenant W. L. Hart, U. S. M. C. The object is primarily to create eligibility in the rank of college men so they may be prepared in time of a national emergency. This training also makes them eligible for commission in the Marine Corps, should they further qualify.

No company weekly drills are involved. Just two weeks at Quantico in the summer on full pay are required. Civil service employees of the Government are entitled to the necessary military leave at full pay. Age limits are from 18 to 35. Equipment and transportation are furnished. Swimming and rifle shooting are a part of the activities. The summer camp takes place in July, when the Washington companies will be in shooting competition with companies from other parts of the United States. Boxing bouts and other forms of entertainment will be furnished also.

Applicants will appear for physical examination at the Episcopal, Eye, and Throat Hospital between 7:30 and 8:30 on Thursdays. The applicants should ask to see Lieutenant Hart. The next examination is on February 27. For further information communicate with Thomas P. Littlepage at Adams 1555 from 7 to 10 p. m.

GLEE CLUBS ENTERTAIN WALTER REED VETERANS

Program Scheduled at Methodist Church at 8 P. M. Tonight

Both the Men's and the Women's Glee Clubs, under the direction of Dr. Robert L. Harmon, entertained the disabled soldiers at the Walter Reed Hospital in a joint concert last Thursday evening.

The two clubs alternated in group singing. The men's club also contributed two quartets, one of which was "The University Four," composed of graduate students, and the women's club, one, Dorothy Clore, soprano, and Dick Kilstein, tenor, were soloists of the evening.

Tonight the two clubs will sing at the Mt. Vernon Methodist Church, South, at 8 p. m.

NOTICE—EASTER RECESS

Students of the University are notified that the Easter recess will extend from Monday, April 21, through Saturday, April 26, and not from April 14 to 21, as announced in the catalogue.

A full week's holiday thus will follow the religious festival, when vacation festivities are appropriate. Provost William Allen Wilbur pointed out in announcing the change.

PROF. BEMIS REPORTS ON TRANSCRIPT WORK

Vast Collection of Photographic Facsimiles Made For Library Of Congress

A report has recently been made to the Library of Congress by Dr. Samuel F. Bemis on the completion of two years' work upon a project for securing facsimiles of source material for American history. Dr. Bemis was granted a two years' leave of absence by the trustees of the University in order to devote his time to this work.

While the first year was largely spent in organization and preparation for this great undertaking, a considerable number of photographic facsimiles and transcripts from archives in England, France, and Spain were made. An idea of the tremendous scope of the second year's work may be obtained by noting the cities officially visited by Dr. Bemis during that time: Washington, London, Paris, Lyons, Carpentras, Avignon, Aix-en-Provence, Marseille, Toulon, Simancas, Madrid, Seville, Rome, Naples, Florence, Venice, Vienna, Prague, Salzburg, Munich, Bremen, Berlin, Hamburg, Stockholm, Oslo and Copenhagen. Actual photographs were secured in most of these places, or arrangements made for the immediate future. A total of 418,235 photographic facsimiles and transcripts was produced during the two years.

This immense mass of material has already been indexed, and upon its arrival at the Library of Congress will be ready for immediate use by students and other historical investigators. Subsequent additions will be made from time to time as the work progresses.

Debaters Will Meet U. of North Carolina

Parsons, Howard and Duncan Form Team To Argue Here; Others Will Travel

Two men's varsity debates, both with the University of North Carolina, feature the current week's debating program. Both of these are scheduled for Friday, February 28. One George Washington team will go to the University of North Carolina on that day, while the other will meet a team from that school here in Stockton Hall. The debate at home will begin at 8 o'clock.

The subject of both debates will be the same as the one involved in the recent Princeton debate, namely, "Resolved, That nations should adopt a plan of complete disarmament, except such armaments as may be needed for police purposes."

In the debate at North Carolina, George Washington will uphold the negative side of the question, opposing disarmament, while in the debate here they will defend the affirmative favoring it. The negative team will consist of Norman Hagen, Woodfin Butte, and Harrison Dorsey. The G. W. representatives on the affirmative side who will speak at home are Robert L. Parsons, Andrew Howard, and Hearst Duncan.

WOOLARD ADDRESSES MATHEMATICS GROUP

The Mathematics Club heard Dr. Edgar W. Woolard lecture on "Modern Hydromechanics" on February 17. Dr. Woolard discussed the equations of the flow of fluids, giving the most general equation and the modifications for the cases for special conditions of viscosity, continuity and density. He pointed out the lack of development of the equations for varying density of the fluid, as in the case of air, where the density depends on several variables, pressure, temperature and humidity.

The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday, March 3, at 8 p. m., in Corcoran Hall, Room 25. Albert Wertbeimer, a graduate student, will lecture on "Alignment Charts." All interested are invited.

WANDERING GREEKS MEET

There will be a meeting Thursday, February 27, at 7 p. m., in the basement of Corcoran Hall, of all Wandering Greeks interested in organization, with a view to organizing a baseball team to compete in interfraternity leagues.

HONOR SORORITY TO INSTALL SOON

George Washington Will Have Chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta

PLANNING INSTALLATION

Freshmen Women With High Marks Will Be Eligible For Initiation

The petition for a local chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta, Freshman Women's Honorary Fraternity, has been approved by the national headquarters of the fraternity at Urbana, according to word just received by Mrs. Winnie G. Barrows, Director of Women's Personnel Guidance. Negotiations to have a chapter of this national scholarship organization for underclass women were carried forward by Mrs. Barrows and Dean Henry Gratton Doyle.

Alpha Lambda Delta was founded at the University of Illinois in 1924. The scholastic requirement for eligibility to entrance is that the candidate's marks for 15 hours of completed work be all A's and B's, at least 50 per cent of which must be A's. The constitution of the fraternity provides that the chapter may initiate sophomore women who were eligible for membership during the preceding year.

Whether the George Washington University will include sophomore women who have fulfilled the qualifications is not yet decided. The Registrar's Office has been requested to make a survey of the groups involved. Pending the results, Mrs. Barrows is deferring further action. A list of those eligible will then be sent to the Grand Secretary, Margaret L. Carnahan, at Urbana.

Paraphrased Phi Eta Sigma

At the installation of Alpha Lambda Delta at the University of Illinois in 1924, it was the intention of the founders that it should parallel Phi Eta Sigma, National Honorary Freshman Scholarship Fraternity, founded at the same school the year before. The eighth chapter of Phi Eta Sigma was installed on the G. W. campus last spring.

At the installation banquet of the George Washington chapter of Phi Eta Sigma last April 19, Dean Thomas Arkle Clark, dean of Illinois men, stressed the origin and aims of the fraternity, saying: "High scholarship and good fellowship can go hand in hand, and it was for this reason that the original chapter at the University of Illinois was formed."

"The Phi Eta Sigma Fraternity was the first fraternity of an honorary nature to bestow scholastic acknowledgment upon students while still in college. It places honor where it can do the most good, and that place is in the early part of the college stay. Not only does this system foster a sense of good fellowship, but it also serves to increase scholarship standards among the fraternity's members."

Upon this occasion, Provost Wilbur remarked that scholarship was the worthy incentive of the members. Dean Doyle told the initiates: "The fact that deans of men and of colleges are interested in fostering a fraternity of this kind shows that such an organization is both necessary and beneficial." A strong supporter of Phi Eta Sigma, Dean Doyle has also actively interested himself in the formation of Alpha Lambda Delta at G. W.

In her letter to Mrs. Barrows, Miss Carnahan wrote in part: "I take pleasure in informing you that the petition of the George Washington University, Washington, D. C., for membership in Alpha Lambda Delta was accepted at the National Convention of this organization, held February 7-8-9 at Urbana, Illinois." Plans for the installation of the G. W. chapter will be hurried forward.

CO-EDS SELL BLOSSOMS ON CAMPUS THIS WEEK

White Flower on Green Leaf Becomes Popular Badge Around School

Cherry blossoms go on sale today on the campus. The blossoms are sold yearly around George Washington's birthday to help the establishment of the chair of Foreign Service in the School of Government. This year Winifred Beall, Caroline Hobbs, Judith Wood, Marion Campbell, Edith Norris, Katherine Beall, Mildred Burnham, Mary Hudson, and Ruth Campbell are handling the sales on the campus.

The G. W. Masonic Club, under whose auspices the blossoms are sold, has several thousand of the white flowers on hand to satisfy the demand between today and Saturday, when the sale closes.

The sale was first announced for last week, but was postponed a few days by action of the executive council.

In past years the G. W. Masonic Club has sold more than its quota of blossoms. It is hoped that this year's sales beginning today will be another long step toward the establishment of the chair of Foreign Service in the new G. W. School of Government.

Reports of Bookworm Army In Library Still Unsupported After Bug Experts' Search

The library is safe from bookworms! Stirred by reports that precious volumes in the library were being devoured by various kinds of book pests and parasites, Mr. Charles H. Popenoe, sent two students from his entomology class to search out the mites.

Robert J. Shostack and William H. Ball, the chosen students, searched through more than 200 books with a high-powered microscope. The diligent young entomologists found not a book bug nor a book pest nor a book louse nor in fact a book parasite of any kind. They therefore duly and diligently declare the book bug peril a myth pure and simple.

LIBERAL CLUB PLANS DISCUSSION OF RUSSIA

Lazare Teper of Johns Hopkins to Speak On New Mortality Among the Soviets

Leaving the field of economics and politics, the Liberal Club will have as its next speaker, Mr. Lazare Teper, of the faculty of Johns Hopkins University, who will speak this evening, February 26, on the topic, "Russia, An Experiment in New Social Vision." The meeting will be held in Corcoran Hall at 8:30 p. m.

Mr. Teper, formerly of the Sorbonne in Paris, has traveled extensively, specializing in the field of sociology and economics. He will discuss the morality and social institutions, their psychological and sociological effects.

The secretary of the club, Robert Shostack, has been chosen for the executive committee of the Intercollegiate Liberal Association, which is planning a conference, similar to that of last year, to be held at Johns Hopkins University, on March 29, 30, 31. Princeton, Yale, University of Maryland, Howard, and Goucher, are represented on the committee.

Benjamin C. Marsh, director of the People's Lobby, has offered the Liberal Club an opportunity to engage in research work in connection with several bills in Congress, pending or proposed, including one for Federal Aid for Dependent Children. Several students have already signified their intention of taking up this work.

At the last meeting, the Liberal Club decided to become a cooperating organization of the Washington Federated Speakers' Bureau, an organization of liberal groups in Washington whose purpose is to obtain nationally known liberal speakers for Washington. Zona Gale and Prof. John Dewey, of Columbia, are the first two selected. The club also voted to cooperate with the League for Industrial Democracy, Intercollegiate Student Council, in their educational campaign in connection with the industrial problem in the South.

Resignation of Arnold Is Formally Announced

Law Professor To Become Dean of Vanderbilt Law School

Formal announcement of the resignation of Professor Earl Caspar Arnold, of the George Washington University Law Faculty, to become Dean of the School of Law of Vanderbilt University, was made at the Midwinter Convocation of the University last Saturday evening. At this time a number of appointments to the faculty were also announced.

Professor Arnold, who will leave George Washington to take up his duties at Vanderbilt in the fall, has been associated with The George Washington Law School since 1923, prior to which time he taught at the University of Idaho, the University of Florida and the University of Cincinnati. For five years he was engaged in the active practice of law, and for three years was assistant to the solicitor of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Professor Arnold holds the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, from Baker University, and Bachelor of Laws, from Northwestern University. The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws is to be conferred upon him by Baker University in June, at which time he will deliver the commencement address at that institution. He is a member of the American Bar Association, The American Association of University Professors, the Order of the Coif, Delta Sigma Rho debating fraternity, and Delta Theta Phi Legal fraternity. He has been admitted to practice in the highest courts of several states, and before the Supreme Court of the United States. He is the author of a standard text on Suretyship and Guaranty, and has had numerous articles printed in legal reviews.

STUDENTS SING ON WMAL

Dan Beattie and Bert Bagranoff went on the air over WMAL Friday evening, under the name of "Dan and Bert." This is one of several broadcasts they have made recently.

DEGREES GIVEN TO SEVENTY-ONE AT CONVOCATION

Dr. Coffman Declares More Industry, Organization, Science Is Necessary

DEANS PRESENT DEGREES; PRES. MARVIN OFFICIATES

Honorary Degrees Conferred Upon Dr. Coffman and Col. Harrison Howell Dodge

Seventy-one graduates of George Washington University received their degrees at mid-year convocation in Constitution Hall, Saturday, February 22.

The convocation address was delivered by Lotus Delta Coffman, LL. D., president of the University of Minnesota. Dr. Coffman told the graduates that if man is to become master of himself and not the slave of the machine, there must be more industry, organization, and science in the progress of civilization.

Following the convocation address the honorary degree of doctor of science in education was conferred upon Dr. Coffman. The honorary degree of doctor of laws was conferred upon Col. Harrison Howell Dodge, superintendent of Mt. Vernon.

Marvin Praises Coffman

In presenting Dr. Coffman with his honorary doctorate, Dr. Cloyd Fick Marvin, president of the University, characterized him as "teacher, scholar, lover of mankind, a leader in whom wisdom and virtue are one; an administrator for whom the present is but the future."

To Colonel Dodge, President Marvin declared: "You have dedicated your life to research, that Mt. Vernon, the home of the father of this country, might also grow. It is my privilege to call you organizer, creative genius, and patriot."

Dr. Coffman stated that the function of the university is not to preserve the past "but to train a generation of youth for the work of a new day, and unless their very atmosphere is surcharged with the spirit of progress and intellectual dissatisfaction, they soon become hazy objects of tradition and reverence rather than the instruments of progress."

"Poverty of Life Odious"

He concluded: "Not less industry, but more; not less organization, but more; not less science, but more, is what we need. In the final analysis, the only poverty that is odious to face is the poverty of life itself." Dr. Marvin advised the graduates that "time not only proves that which is useful to mankind, but with certain selections and depicts each action of those who live. By those of you who are accepting the responsibilities that come with formal education, it must be borne in mind that usually involuntary actions of life, depending upon how well you have schooled yourselves in times past, are those that are going to leave the fundamental impressions in society. It is my earnest hope that your record may tell a story of a true life."

The candidates for the degrees in course were presented by the deans of the various schools and departments, as follows: Dean Charles E. Hill, for Columbian College; Dean William C. Van Vleet for the School of Law; Dean William Carl Riedinger for the School of Education; and Dean George N. Henning for the Graduate School of Letters and Sciences.

WASHINGTON, D. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1930

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Literally months have passed since the Committee on Student Life referred the following resolution to the President's Council: "Resolved: That a student council of representatives from the several schools and divisions of the University be established. That these representatives be elected by their respective schools, with each school or division being entitled to one delegate for each 500 students or major fraction thereof registered in that school or division; provided, however, that no school or division have less than one representative."

"That these elected members of the council choose one of their number, an upperclassman, to serve as president of the council and concurrently as president of the student body of the University, and that another member of the council, also an upperclassman, be elected by the council as vice president, and a third member as secretary-treasurer."

"That the present system of class officers, including a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and sergeant-at-arms for each class of each school or division be abolished."

No action, so far as The Hatchet has learned, has been taken by the President's Council. Without their sanction, the matter of class officers seems to have died a natural death, and the passing of the 117 or more political jobs which are vacant has not caused an earthquake or any other disturbance in the life of the University.

Still, we begin to feel the loss of some officials, not only because there should be some reason to have the fraternities and sororities line up into opposing camps, but because there should be a senior president to preside at class night, and there should be some junior to receive the moth-eaten mantle that is handed down from year to year for some reason or other.

But in all seriousness, we believe that a resolution by a student group should receive some attention, and should be commented on one way or another much sooner than has been the case in this matter of a student government.

CHERRY BLOSSOMS

Another opportunity to aid in the development of a greater G. W. will be given to the student body of the University during the next few days when Cherry Blossoms will be sold on the campus under the auspices of the local Masonic Club. The proceeds from this campaign will be forwarded to the National League of Masonic Clubs and will be used for the maintenance of a chair of Foreign Service in the new School of Government at this University.

The University was given an endowment of one million dollars by Scottish Rite Freemasonry of the Southern Jurisdiction a short time ago. This fund will provide the working capital for the School of Government in which the Chair of Foreign Service is established. The National League of Masonic Clubs has undertaken to provide for the Foreign Service Chair through the annual sale of Cherry Blossoms in the United States and neighboring countries.

The National League of Masonic Clubs is doing a notable work for George Washington in that it is placing the name of the University before Masonic groups throughout the world under the most favorable circumstances. In establishing a Chair of Foreign Service the League is fostering one of the cardinal principles of American democracy, as these students who matriculate in this school will be the future consuls and diplomatic agents of the United States among the nations of the earth.

Further, it is incumbent upon the local organization to make as satisfactory a showing as possible, for the interest of all the Clubs throughout the country is focused upon the results to be accomplished by its efforts in the campaign. If it can be said that the students on our own campus are sufficiently interested in the work of the League to justify a favorable reception of the drive, the influence will be nationally beneficial, not only as to the sale of blossoms and the consequent accumulation of funds, but as to interest and enthusiasm for our own Alma Mater. It remains for us to demonstrate our faith!

TROUBADOURS READY TO RECEIVE NEW WORK

Plan to Collect Library of Manuscripts, Librettos, and Books For Future Use

The Troubadour Board announces that it is ready to receive any new books and music for future musical comedies. Its object is to collect a library of original manuscripts, librettos and music, from which to choose each year. Offerings not used one year may prove to be suitable for the next year's show. As the library grows, there will be a much better opportunity for choice selection of the play and the music, and this should still further improve productions that now enjoy a high reputation.

The book must be original, and must not have a college theme. It should have distinct qualities of the unusual that will furnish a colorful and interesting setting. Manuscripts may be mailed or delivered to Ralph Kennedy, Managing Director of the G. W. Troubadours.

The music must be original, with no hint of "steals" in the tunes. If anyone finds himself able to play the music, but unable to write it, he should apply to Dan Beattie, who will assist in the composition. All music may be mailed or delivered to Dan Beattie at the Theta Delta Chi House, 1714 Rhode Island Avenue.

MODERN POETRY CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

Mac Harris Clarke, is President of Organization

At their weekly meeting on Tuesday, February 18, the Modern Poetry Club elected its officers for the new semester. Mac Harris Clarke, former vice president, is now president of the organization. Jean Kirkwood is the new vice president, and Lee McNeill, the secretary.

The next meeting of the group will be held Friday, February 28, in the Sigma Kappa rooms. The purpose will be to arouse the members to stimulate interest for modern poetry in the student body.

Changing their policy, the Modern Poetry Club will from now on hold its meetings in diverse sorority rooms. The group plans to obtain famous contemporary poets to speak at future meetings.

HISTORY CLUB OFFERS CASH PRIZES FOR ESSAY

At the February meeting of the History Club it was decided to offer a prize of twenty-five dollars for the best paper on a subject which will be announced next week. This contest will be open to all students of the University.

Preceding the business meeting Dr. H. M. Dudley, assistant professor of history at American University, spoke on "The Spirit of the Renaissance as Reflected in the Twentieth Century." Dr. Dudley traced the tendencies to liberty, individualism, and humanism from early Greek history through the Roman transmission and coupled them with their Christian and German manifestations.

Men's Glee Club Meets Rivals in Vocal Fest

Johns Hopkins and Catholic University Compete For Singing Honors

The Men's Glee Club of George Washington University met last night in competition with the similar organizations of Johns Hopkins University and Catholic University. The contest was to select one most worthy to represent the Middle Atlantic section in a national contest to be held soon.

During the past week the G. W. Glee Club has given several concerts in various churches of the city, in preparation for the contest. Thursday, February 13, it sang with the G. W. Girls' Glee Club at the Walter Reed Hospital. The feature of this joint concert was the singing of some numbers by a quartet composed of graduate members of the club.

The contest last night was presented by the Middle Atlantic Intercollegiate Glee Club Association, which was organized as an associate member of the National Intercollegiate Musical Council. The judges for the occasion were Dr. Edgar Priest, in charge of music at the National Cathedral, Otto Simon, and Kurt Hetzel, both voice-culture teachers.

The winner of the contest will be the first to represent this section in the national contest, to be held in New York. Any club from Maryland, Virginia, or the District, desiring to enter the national contest in the future must first participate successfully in the local.

NATIONAL ORATORICAL CONTESTS ANNOUNCED

Although March 25 is the closing date for entries in the Sixth National Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest on the Constitution, already 81 colleges and universities from 29 states have written to P. Caspar Harvey, national director, Liberty, Mo.

The competition for the greatest forensic honor open to college students in America foreshadows bringing together this year the largest group of colleges and universities in any project of the kind in the history of American higher education, according to the announcement made this week at the national headquarters. A total of $5,000 in prizes will be awarded, and the winner, who will become the national intercollegiate champion orator for 1930, will be awarded a prize of $1,500. Second place will give a prize of $1,000, scaling down to $400 for seventh place.

The nation-wide interest in this contest is seen from the distribution of the 35 prize-winning national finalists during the last five years among 32 schools in 20 states.

COLONIALS BEAT CARDINALS AFTER LOSING TO SALEM

Harris, Fine, and Hoover Lead
G. W. Team; Play is Rough

CATHOLIC U. VANQUISHED AS TEAM GETS EARLY LEAD

Salem Game Lost in Last Half
After Fast Start

On Wednesday of last week G. W. lost to Salem College of West Virginia by a score of 39-35, but won from Catholic University in a rough game 23-21 on Saturday.

In the G. W. Salem game the Colonials got off to a good lead but soon lost it by virtue of the fast, quick playing mountaineers. The lead changed and G. W. was leading at the half 20-13.

In the second half the Mountaineers closed the gap in the score and took the lead but soon lost it again. The lead changed several times and in the last few minutes of play it was doubtful who was to come out the winner. The Salem five then took the lead which they maintained to the end, the score being 39-35 in their favor.

Reds Harris was the star of the game, piling up a total of 16 points to take scoring honors.

Fine and Hoover also added to the scoring by chalking up three baskets and two foul shots apiece.

The C. U. game showed the keen rivalry between the two teams at its worst. The play was unnecessarily rough throughout the contest.

G. W. Leads Throughout

The Colonials took the lead from the start and maintained it throughout the entire game. Play was fast, but there was not much scoring done in the first few minutes of the game. At the end of the first half G. W. held a good lead of eight points, the score being 12-4.

At the beginning of the second half the Colonials continued to score running up a nine-point lead, making the score 18-9. The C. U. offense began then and they broke through the G. W. defense and brought the score within four points of the Colonials.

G. W. started freezing the ball, but C. U. took possession of the ball and Walsh dropped in a basket to make the score 23-21 in the Colonials favor. The freezing tactics again went into effect as G. W. got possession of the ball at the tip-off and kept it from the C. U. team until the final whistle.

Fine, of G. W., was the leading scorer

MANHATTAN RINGMEN OPPOSE G. W. BOXERS

Match to be Held in Gymnasium at Eight Tomorrow
Night

The boxing team of Manhattan College of New York will meet the George Washington group tomorrow night at 8 p. m. in the G. W. gym. The team is scheduled to appear with Dave Cohen in the 115-pound class, Leo Coveleski, in the 130-pound class, Kleiman, in the 145; Bill Phillips, 155; Bill Stanley, 165; Summers, 170; and Red Oeschlaugher, in the unlimited class.

In the bout between the same two teams held on February 14 in New York City the decision was a draw. Cohen, Coveleski, who won a knock-out decision in the C. U. matches, and Phillips lost their bouts; Oeschlaugher and Stanley drew defaults, and Duffalo's contest came out in a no bout decision. Kleiman was the only G. W. man to win a decision.

On account of the closeness of this last match Coach Bucky Green feels that the contest for tomorrow night will be interesting and hard-fought, but he is at the same time optimistic. The team is having daily drills. As the gym is small, the seating capacity is limited. Except for a few reserved seats for the faculty and alumni the first applicants will get the seats. Formal dress is required of the audience.

CORRECTION

The correct result of the Junior-Freshman basketball game was a score of 25 to 24 in favor of the Junior girls.

with four baskets and a foul shot to his credit. The Colonials showed a fighting spirit in this game which was admirable and is hard to beat.

INDIANS MEET FIRST LOSS

Folsom and McCallum Hold Back
Opposition By Airtight
Defense

George Washington's co-ed basketball team defeated the Williams and Mary sextet by a 27-18 score in a hard fought contest at Williamsburg on Saturday, February 22.

Displaying accurate passing and close teamwork, the team sent the Indians down to their first defeat in four years. Interest ran high from start to finish, for although G. W. was ahead most of the time, the Williams and Mary girls made several determined bids for the lead. During the last quarter they staged a great comeback, but the excellent defense of the Washingtonians thwarted their best efforts.

The G. W. team proved especially adept at intercepting time passes and using a series of fast short passes to work back into forward territory.

The forwards, Naomi Crumley, captain, and Jean McGregor, accounted for George Washington's 27 points by their accurate shooting from the field and foul lines. Jenny Turnbull, jump center, dominated center field by her excellent passing, while Wilhelmina Gude assisted her ably as side center. Evelyn Folsom and Catherine McCallum prevented their opponents from shooting time and again, by their close guarding and well-timed passes. There were no substitutions in the Buff and Blue line-up.

Spring Grid Practice Starts Last of March

Candidates Sought For Early Training As Team Faces Hardest
Schedule

After a long rest, candidates for the George Washington varsity football team will be called out the latter part of March to take part in the spring football practice. Because of the heavy rains and snow which have featured Washington's long winter, the park commission in charge of the Ellipse, where the practice is to be held will not release the grounds until this late date.

Much interest is being taken in the forthcoming practice. This is due to the fact that the Colonials will face next fall the University's hardest schedules. For this reason Coach Pixlee sees the need of an intensive spring training. All men who will be eligible for the varsity next year are urged to take part.

The purpose will be not to get the candidates in physical condition but to teach them the fundamentals. At the same time the freshmen will be given a chance to work out and scrimmage with the varsity.

The schedule for next year has been filed with the exception of one date. That date will, in all probability, be taken by Salem College of West Virginia.

FAMED WRITERS DEBATE

Many G. W. students were present at Constitution Hall when Thornton Wilder, author of "The Bridge of San Luis Rey," and Hugh Walpole, English writer, debated February 18, on the subject, "Resolved, That History and Biography are of greater worth than Fiction and Drama," at Constitution Hall. No decision was declared at the end.

G. W. Librarian, Organist, Furnishes Aid In Music Services of Spring Convocation

John Russell Mason, Associate Librarian, Plays Organ At University
Graduation Exercises on Washington's Birthday; Has Given
Services on Many Other Important Occasions

Few have suspected that the associate librarian of this school is an organist.

But John Russell Mason plays the organ beautifully. At The George Washington University Mid-Winter Convocation held last Saturday, he furnished all music services, on the organ newly installed at the Constitution Hall. Nor did he fail to render the intricate pieces as only great organists can render them.

Less than a week before the February graduation exercises, Mr. Mason learned he was to furnish this music. Not many of those who took books from the University library with his assistance knew that from childhood Mr. Mason has turned to the organ for recreation and self-expression. With long years of practice behind him, he accepted the task.

Organ Music Was Well Liked

Accordingly, on February 22, Washington's Birthday, the senior class of George Washington University and those attending its graduation exercises entered the auditorium to the inspired strains of Mr. Mason's organ. Those who attended said the rendition of Lorei, Dabois, and Mendelssohn could not have been more perfect; nor his playing of "America" and "The Star Spangled Banner" more effective. No less beautiful was his processional march, at the close.

Seldom has organ music characterized a George Washington University graduation exercise; last year the Marine Band furnished the music. Only once before in Mr. Mason's memory has the organ been used, but it was recognized even that first time as preferable and as more "academic." The organ used by Mr. Mason last Saturday cost over $40,000 and had been played before by only one other.

ZAHN OUT FOR TWO WEEKS

Catholic U. Frosh Draw Away in Second Half to Grab Contest
By 44-31 Score

The George Washington University Freshmen defeated the Maryland Yearlings and lost to the Catholic U. Frosh in two games played in the past week. Two regulars were missing from the line-up in both games.

Player-coach Jack Connor and Forrest Burgess were ineligible because of the transfer rule under which Maryland U. plays. The Cubs had little difficulty in winning, however. The final score read 31 to 18 in the G. W. quint's favor. Otis Zahn, star performer at the guard position for the Cubs, was seriously hurt at the start of the second half when he crashed into the bleachers. He will probably be out of the game for two weeks.

The G. W. five was leading by six points at the end of the first half with out having extended itself. The Maryland quint scored only one field goal in the first half. Billy Wells led the Buff and Blue team in points scored by ringing up 13 markers, and Lee Carlin was right behind him with 10 points.

The Cubs lost to the C. U. Frosh on the Cardinal's floor by a score of 44-31. The Colonials were in the van, 15-14, at the end of the first half, but at the beginning of the third period the Cardinal Yearlings drew rapidly away from the visiting quint. Zahn and Burgess were unable to play, the former because of injury and the latter because of Catholic University's transfer rule.

This is the first time a ten-man team has been used. Metro and Mosler shooting in the new places. Parsons and Tomeldon tied for first place on the team in this match, the former outranking Tomeldon because of his higher standing score.

G. W. Women Riflers Match Carnegie Tech

N. R. A. Contest Progresses; Drexel

Next

The George Washington Women's Rifle Team shot a telegraphic match with Carnegie Tech on Saturday, February 22.

The scores will be announced later as will those of the N. R. A. championship match now in progress. The G. W. team has held this championship for the past three years.

Drexel Institute is coming from Philadelphia to shoot a shoulder-to-shoulder match with G. W., on March 1, at the home range. This is the first match of its kind this season, and is an annual match of long standing. Last year, for the first time, these teams did not meet because of building operations at Drexel.

On March 15 the George Washington team will travel to Philadelphia to shoot a return match with the University of Pennsylvania and Drexel.

W. A. A. HEARS ADDRESS BY GOUCHER SPEAKER

Delegates To Be Sent to Intercollegiate Conference of Women's Athletic Associations

At the meeting of the W. A. A. held in Corcoran Hall on Wednesday, February 12, Eline Von Borries, of Goucher College, gave a short talk on women's athletics, stressing the program of class and intramural competition in effect at Goucher College.

Another interesting feature of the meeting was a paper on "Ice Skating," read by Mary Virginia Smith. Mary Hudson, manager of the George Washington intramural program for women, gave a report on the progress of the various competitions at George Washington. The bowling contest proved very successful, but interest in the volleyball tournament lagged on account of the proximity of mid-year exams.

More girls, both sorority and non-sorority, are becoming interested in the various contests sponsored by the intramural committee. Basketball will be the featured sport for February and March.

It was decided that two delegates would be sent to the intercollegiate conference of women's athletic associations.

Drexel Meets G. W. Girls in Basketball

Interclass Games Will Be Played
On Same Afternoon, Saturday,
March 1

Drexel Institute is the next school on George Washington's varsity basketball schedule. The game will be played here in the Gym on Saturday, March 1, at 4 o'clock.

The probable line-up of the George Washington team will include: Naomi Crumley, Alethea Lawton, Nexa Ewin, Katherine McCallum, Evelyn Folsom, Jean McGregor, Wilhelmina Gude, Catherine Palmer, Grace Haley, Jenny Turnbull, and Dorothy Wilson.

Class games will precede the varsity game and will begin at 2:30. The strong sophomore and junior teams will clash at this time, and freshmen and seniors will play. In the last class games, the juniors defeated the freshmen 25-24, and the seniors, bowed before the sophomores, 39-9.

The class squads consist of: Seniors—Whitney, Cyndloom, Haladay, Cron, Nichols, Ivey, Reed, Ford, Juniors—Bennerson, Wood, Morrow, Lindsay, Sproul, Ziegler, Kanof.

Sophomores—Von Lewinski, Burnham, Brockendrick, Reed, Wilson, Hall, Ad, James, Siegrist, Payne, Detweiler, Lum.

SWIMMING ACTIVITIES HAVE ENLARGED RANGE

Swimming activities for men have been extended to include beginners' classes, practice hours, life-saving, artificial respiration classes, and Red Cross requirements. There are large numbers of men coming out for aquatic sports who have never had any interest in this form of Gym before. There are at present three regular swimming classes.

Manager Bill Thompson mysteriously refuses to disclose any of the plans for the varsity team, merely saying that the school should watch their smoke.

Professor Norman Bruce Ames, executive officer of the Electrical Engineering Department, was the George Washington University representative at the mid-winter convention of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers held in New York City on January 27.

In discussing the meeting, Professor Ames commented especially on the reports of work done in connection with high voltage transmission. He declared that recent research and development have supplied invaluable aids for further research in this important work.

Another feature of the meeting was a paper of Dr. Kennedy of Howard University dealing with the efforts being made to supply the physicist, and engineer, of all nationalities with a common and practical language.

UNIVERSITY HAS REGULATIONS ON SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Lax Compliance With Rules Brings Letter From Committee

MRS. BARROWS HANDLES NOTICES OF CHAPERONS

List of Chaperons Must Be Approved Before All University Dances

The Hatchet reprints the following note and the University regulations on social activities at the request of the Committee on Student Life. Dean Henry Grattan Doyle is chairman of this committee.

"The attention of responsible officers and chairmen of all university organizations holding social affairs is called to the regulations governing chaperonage, which are reprinted below. The administration of these regulations is handled by the office of Mrs. Barrows, secretary for Women's Activities. Notice of parties to Mrs. Barrows well in advance, filing of chaperon lists, acceptance by chaperons of their responsibilities, and adequate chaperonage at all times must not be overlooked. Failure to comply with the regulations in any instance subjects an organization to the penalty of cancellation of social privileges.

The regulations follow:

I. All social organizations of the University shall file with the Secretary for Women's Activities the name of the president, his or her address and telephone number, and a brief statement of the nature and purpose of the organization.

b. Any group of students desiring to form a new social organization shall submit to the Committee on Student Life a list of charter members and a

Plans For Sightseeing Tour And Bear-Shooting Party Discussed by Radio Club

At the birthday "party" the Radio Club told of the many ingenious past experiments it had been conducting, and revealed some of the future ones.

Their biggest problem is the building of a portable radio-phone transmitter, which they want ready for the College Radio Union Convention to be held in this city July 4, 5, and 6.

All the radio fans from other colleges are going to try to gather here, hold a sightseeing tour, and go up to the Adirondacks bear-shooting, and the G. W. U. headquarters can have to carry the local officers and a portable radio transmitter. Four universities have promised to send delegates to this convention, and the others will soon be heard from.

The astounding electric sleuth and the outline of future events weren't all that entertained an enthusiastic gathering at the Radio Club meeting, but talks were given as well. Samuel G. Hall spoke on "Polar Equations of Straight Line Frequency Condensers" which went over the heads of those who never had calculus. Howard S. Cole gave the treasury report, and was complimented because it didn't show that, expected $5,000 deficit. Some stale jokes and radio "bologna" were given by A. W. Small.

copy of the proposed constitution and by-laws. A group shall not be recognized as a University organization except upon approval by the committee.

To remain until all guests have left; 3. To report to the committee any violation of University regulations or of good order in general.

"a. Each organization shall file with the committee, not later than October 1 of each school year, a list of not less than ten names of persons willing to act as chaperons at social events under its auspices. Such list shall contain the following information:

"1. Name of organization filing list.
"2. Name, address, and telephone number of officer in charge of social activities, or of president if there is not such an officer.
"3. Name in full of each chaperon.
"4. City address of each chaperon.
"5. Telephone number of each chaperon.

"6. A statement of proposed chaperon's interest in or connection with the University or organization.
"7. Date of graduation of proposed chaperon, if alumnus.

"b. The Committee, not later than October 15 will return to each organization an approval list of chaperons for that academic year.

"c. Additions may be made to this list at any time subject to the approval of the committee.

"d. At the time of filing application for a date, a list of chaperons to be invited to the specific event must be filed.
"e. Not later than two days before the event scheduled written acceptances from such chaperons must be filed with the committee.

"f. For a fraternity, sorority, or club, dance there shall be not less than three chaperons; for general University functions, there shall be at least eight.

IV. Patrons and Patronesses

TROUBADOUR DANCING FEATURES CARD PARTY

W. A. A's Have Entertainment by Troubadour Singing and Dancing

Dancing and singing by members of the Troubadours, and an attendance of approximately 100 G. W. students and their friends, helped to make the annual card party of the W. A. A. a successful entertainment.

The party was given in Corcoran Hall 1 on Wednesday, February 12.

Elizabeth Wright, leading lady in several of the recent productions of the Troubadours, sang two favorite numbers, "Over the Garden Gate" and "Cottage of Dreams."

Frank Westbrook, co-author of the 1929 production, "Gypsy in Egypt," rendered the "Black Maria Blues" and an encore with great expression.

Twice the little choruses from the Troubadours demonstrated their ability in snappy numbers.

Members of the little chorus who appeared were Margaret Mays, Winnifred Beale, Verna Parsons, Christine Spignul, Mary Jane Allen.

Daniel Beattie, next year's musical director, played the accompaniments with his usual skill.

The committee who arranged for the affair was composed of Bertie Wright, Mary Sproul, Mary Detwiler, India Bell Corea, and Sarah Reed.

National Education Assn. Holds Banquet

Miss Ruth Pyrtle of Nebraska is Guest of Honor and Principal Speaker

Miss E. Ruth Pyrtle, of Nebraska, president of the National Education Association, was the guest of honor and principal speaker at the annual dinner of the Educational Association of the District of Columbia, at the Mayflower Hotel, February 15.

Other speakers included: Dr. Frank W. Ballou, superintendent of schools; Dr. H. Barret Learned, member of the Board of Education; and George F. Morgan, editor of the Bulletin of the N. E. A.

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Powers, Dean and Mrs. William C. Ruediger, and Dr. and Mrs. W. C. French were invited guests from George Washington.

Miss A. C. Kellier was chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the banquet. Stephen E. Kramer, trustee of George Washington University, assisted on the committee.

Last year, Dr. Goeper, Commissioner of Education, was the guest of honor. The presidency of the N. E. A. alternates each year between a man and a woman.

This branch of the N. E. A. is the only one that has in its membership university professors, public and private school teachers, and administrative officers.

Episcopal Clubs Hold Tri-Diocesan Meeting

Virginia Bonifant, Former Vice President, Elected Head of Local Club

The Tri-Diocesan Conference of Episcopal Clubs will be held in Washington over the week-end, February 28 to March 2, at which the chief social features will be a dinner and a tea dance, sponsored by The George Washington University and American University Episcopal Clubs. Both functions will be held at St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

At the conference the following clubs will be represented: Johns Hopkins, Goucher, Towson Normal, Washington College, St. John's Academy, Maryland University, American University, Hood College, Western Maryland and George Washington University. Delegates from the G. W. Club are Kennedy Watkins and Virginia Bonifant, with Mildred Conklin as alternate.

Virginia Bonifant, former vice president, was elected president of the local club to succeed Robert Moncre, declared ineligible because he is not at present a student at the University.

Practical Methods Are Outlined to Journalists

L. G. Miller, Managing Editor of Washington News, Addresses Class

Practical ways in which members of the Journalism class may apply the principles of news writing were outlined to the class in a recent address by L. G. Miller, Managing Editor of The Washington News. An arrangement was suggested by which the class may send stories of interesting events about the campus to the News for consideration and possibly publication.

Mr. Miller stated that the first step in obtaining a position on the staff of a newspaper is to establish a reputation. The only way to do this is by getting news stories printed, even though the paper be a small rural one.

He explained how the various members of the News Staff had been selected. The "Town Crier," who gives the latest news, flashes over the radio every evening at 5.45 is a Georgetown student who worked in the office during vacation as copy boy.

PHI ALPHA FRATERNITY LEADS IN SCHOLARSHIP

Reports from the Interfraternity Conference show that Phi Alpha leads all other national fraternities in scholarship leading its nearest competitor by a wide margin.

Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, who addressed the Newman Club meeting last Thursday, February 20.

SEN. WALSH ADDRESSES NEWMAN CLUB MEETING

Discussion of Modern Catholicism is Presented Before Thursday Meeting of Catholic Club

Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, addressed the Newman Club of George Washington University at its regular meeting last Thursday night in Corcoran Hall. He took as his subjects some of the misunderstandings in regard to the Catholic Church, and the primary requisites for success in life.

He pointed out that the Catholic Church is universal in scope, being limited to no one class, kind, or nationality of man. He illustrated this point with a story of a dinner he had once attended, at which men of twenty nationalities, all of whom were Catholics, were present.

Senator Walsh gave as his requisites for being successful, concentration, hard work, and justice to all men. He described success as "being prepared when the opportunity comes."

Dean William Allen Wilbur, Provost of the University, also addressed the gathering and introduced the principal speaker. In his talk he pointed out the fact that the University has always encouraged gatherings such as this, of young people bound by the common bond of religion. He expressed his gratification at its success, and promised the club his further cooperation.

BIRTH CONTROL IS ARGUED BY COLUMBIANS

Society Goes on Record as Opposed to Legal Dissemination of Literature

Resolving itself, into a Senate, the Columbian Debating Society on Friday evening debated the birth control question. By a close vote the society went on record as opposed to the legal dissemination of birth control information.

During the course of the discussion speeches were delivered by Richard S. Marks, David Rapoport, Gilbert Rabnowitz, Karl Frisbie, Ralph Joyce, and Sol Alpher. President Ralph Morgali also was heard from the floor after relinquishing the chair to Ralph Joyce.

There will be no meeting of the Columbian Society this Friday, February 28, because of the Interfraternity Prom.

A unanimous vote for the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment was the decision of the society following a debate on that subject, February 14. Those who debated were Doering, Hagen, Quarles, and Frisbie.

The subject for debate on Friday, March 7 will be: Resolved: That the question "Are you willing to take up arms for the defense of your country?" be eliminated from the naturalization procedure. Sol Alpher and Leo David will speak on the affirmative, while Ralph Morgali and Karl Frisbie will uphold the negative.

Menorah Will Meet; Students on Program

The Question of an American Jewish University To Be Discussed

The next meeting of the Menorah Society of G. W. U. will be held on Thursday, February 27, in Corcoran Hall, Room 1. There will be two topics taken up at this session: Sol Alpher, the president, is to give a short informative talk on W. Rathenau, the German prime minister, who was assassinated by Anti-Semites, and Bessie Litman is to lead the discussion of whether or not an American Jewish University should be established.

At the last meeting, that of February 11, William Franklin Rosenblum, popular rabbi of Washington, delivered a speech on the subject, "New Gods for Old." His chief point was, that things formerly worshipped have continued to be but only in a different form. He illustrated this idea by the primitive deification of the sun and the present multiple uses of the sun's rays and by the primitive worship of the moon as still shown by the modern songs and poems on the same object. Rabbi Rosenblum also expressed the belief that civilization is just that stage of accomplishment man has reached whereby he can get the most happiness possible out of his environment.

Song Contest To Be Held In Gym March 6

Intramural Groups Will Write Songs; Miss Cooper and Prof. Crandall To Judge

A song contest will be held at the Women's Basketball rally scheduled in the Gymnasium on Thursday afternoon, March 6, at one o'clock. The object of this competition will be to obtain some George Washington songs suitable for girls' athletics. There are at present only a few G. W. songs, and these were written for football games.

Miss Atwell, Director of Women's Sports, hopes to get some really worthwhile material, as each sorority and non-sorority group of the Intra-Mural Organization is expected to write a song. Several representatives from each of the various groups will sing at the rally, the composition of their respective group.

General songs that might apply to all athletics, and also songs applying to one particular sport such as basketball or hockey, have been requested. Judges selected to preside over the song contest are Anna Pearl Cooper, of the English Department, and Professor Crandall, of the School of Architecture. The first, second, and third best songs will be chosen by the committee of judges.

French Girl In Spanish Class Adroit At Mixing Of Foreign Languages

Most members of a Spanish class think they have a hard time translating the intricacies of Calderon's verse into English. Imagine, then, what it is for a French girl to have to juggle three languages in her mind and remember the constructions for French, Spanish and English. Nevertheless, Elizabeth Marechal, in the evening third-year Spanish class is undismayed by this predicament. In fact, she passed the course with a grade of A last semester.

Miss Marechal came to America from Thonon-les-Bains, France, in 1924, and is now a sophomore in Columbian College.

"It is not so hard, turning Spanish into English," she said with her very slight accent, "but when I come to a very difficult passage, I get confused and I think of the French first and then turn it into English."

In the same class is Faustino R. Aponte, Columbian College, of Porto Rico. Professor Jones says that Señor Aponte is rendering invaluable assistance to the other members of the class by demonstrating the correct pronunciation for Spanish.

ALUMNI ABROAD WRITE TO DOCTOR DONALDSON

Graduates of George Washington Are Scattered All Over the World

Many former students at George Washington who are now located in various foreign countries have kept in touch with the University through Dr. John Donaldson, Professor of Political Economy, specialist in international economic relations and National Vice President of Delta Phi Epsilon foreign service fraternity. Some of these students have returned to their native lands, whence they came to George Washington. Others are in the foreign service of the State Department, the Department of Commerce, or American corporations or financial institutions.

Fuchao K. Wong, who received his M. A. here several years ago, has recently written Dr. Donaldson. Wong is at present located at Nanking, China, in the center of the activities of the new Nationalist Government. His comments are based on first hand information in a field which seems to most Americans hopelessly confused.

Rohrer in Manila

John H. MacDonald, stationed at Warsaw, Poland, in the consular service, is another correspondent. Mr. MacDonald received his M. A. at George Washington last year, and hopes to return to work for the Ph. D. degree. He has been assigned to the immigrant visa work of the consulate, which he describes, adding impartial observations on European politics.

Harvey V. Rohrer (M. A.), is Assistant Trade Commissioner at Manila and professorial lecturer at the University of the Philippines in a course on International Economic Relations. Edward Morrison (A. B.), went with the National City Bank of New York last year, and has received his first foreign assignment for that organization. William Hardy, Jr., and Vernon Northrup are with the Firestone Company. William Werner Bradford, who is en route to a Department of Commerce post in British West Africa, has kept Dr. Donaldson informed of his experience on the high seas and in London.
